The Duke

The Duquesne Duke is the award-winning student newspaper at Duquesne University. With a weekly print edition and updated website, The Duke has desks in news (campus, local and national), sports, arts and entertainment, features and opinions, and is comprised of more than 40 student journalists.

The Duke is published every Thursday during the academic year. Each week, content is available both online and in 3,000 print issues at 13 newsstands across campus. The newspaper received the Society of Professional Journalists' Mark of Excellence award for the 2009 Best-All Around Daily Student Newspaper. Individual pieces published in The Duke have been recognized by the SPJ and the Student Keystone Press Awards.

Duquesne University

Founded in 1878, Duquesne University is the only Spiritan University in the world and is the largest Catholic university in Pennsylvania. Duquesne's self contained 46-acre campus overlooking downtown Pittsburgh is home to 10,000 students which represent every state in the U.S. and 80 nations worldwide.
